

National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment

Fog is expected to develop under clearing skies this evening and overnight. Not everywhere in the warning area will experience fog, though where this does form the visibility may drop below 100 m. This is most likely in low lying areas and river valleys.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 19:00 on Thu, 02nd Nov 2017 until 11:00 on Fri, 03rd Nov 2017

Fog is expected to develop over parts of Southern England through Thursday evening and overnight. Fog will then only slowly clear during Friday morning.

Hazardous driving conditions and slower journey times can be expected. Delays to bus and train services, plus delays or cancellations to flights are possible.
